Caring For the Past: Issues in Conservation for Archeology and Museums (heritage List) Elizabeth Pye

Caring for the Past discusses the evolution, philosophy and current practice of conservation. It is intended to encourage a better understanding of what conservation involves, and of how it can contribute to the study and enjoyment of the heritage. Issues affecting conservation and its future development are examined, and illustrated with examples. The main focus of the book is the conservation of archaeological, ethnographic and museum objects.
