The Disilgold Way: Countdown 101 From Writer to Self Publisher Heather Covington

The Disilgold Way: Countdown 101 From Writer To Self Publisher is a motivational and auto-biographical novel by Heather Covington about how a young CEO of the Bronx built a publishing and publicity company, plus one of the largest online infused networks, The DLNA. She also, reveals the making of The Disilgold Soul Literary Review, an award publication, and The YOUnity Reviewers Book Club Worldwide. Heather gives "The Writer" step by step details on writing a book, copyright basics, obtaining a business license, tax and book keeping information, how to self publish, the pro and cons of print on demand, setting up an office, marketing tips, and creating a media setup kit that helped the CEO to earn awards, rave reviews, interviews on radio and television, plus newspaper, magazine and top website spotlights without conventional bookstore sales. Not only can this book offer just as much as most books on self publishing, but it acknowledges hundreds of people in the literary world who inspired Heather. The Disilgold Way is a treasure of inspiration for "The Writer" who desires to enjoy the process of becoming a self publisher.
