Discurso del Metodo (Spanish Edition) Rene Descartes

El Discurso del método fue dado a conocer por Descartes cual si de una "historia" se tratara, pues pretendía que cada uno de sus lectores se cuestionar qué podía "imitar" de la historia que hacía suya. Si adoptamos la concepción de la lectura que Descartes nos propone, no será difícil que establezcamos una productiva conversación con este texto, cuyo interés y contenido, dada la riqueza del mismo, dependerán de cuáles fueron nuestras preocupaciones teóricas y de la oportunidad y sagacidad con que hagamos surgir las preguntas. Verdad es que el tratamiento académico de esta obra y, por supuesto, el escolar vienen obrando en contra de la propuesta cartesiana en un doble sentido. Por una parte, siguen reduciendo su presencia a las cuestiones metodológicas y de reorganización de la metafísica; por otra parte, persiste la tendencia a resaltar la heterogeneidad de los elementos que lo integran y las distintas fases de su composición.
