“Lust, Love and More or Nothing at All” is a contemporary dating story set up in England and made into poetry about women and the stages of their emotions when they connect to some one and spent their days in the gambling of guessing. JM Robby (Johanna Maria Robby) is the writer that had put words to it and she invites to all the women to make the words their own. The book is divided in different chapters that correspond with the different stages of infatuation, flirtation, dating, guessing, desire, love or maybe nothing. It has provocative and spiritual views and it defends the better start when you met some one. This book is definitely targeting the heart where poetry is pleasantly and sadly made. The book can be purchased directly from amazon.co.uk and can be the ideal gift for Saint Valentines.
