We Believe: An Anglican Worship Guide Mathew B. Sims

The beauty of the Christian faith is unparalleled. Yet in many ways we have rejected our faith tradition in favor of individualism and the ironic “No creed but Christ.” The creeds, confessions, and catechisms fight against this tendency. They connect us to the “great cloud of witness” who went before us. They give us confidence and boldness as we worship within our churches and homes alongside the saints redeemed by the killed, risen, and reigning King Jesus.

In We Believe: Creeds, Confessions, and Catechisms for Worship, Mathew has collected the essential church documents for Protestants. This is a companion guide for that much larger volume. Mathew offers an easy to use guide for working through the core content (the Lord’s Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Apostles’ Creeds, and the Nicene Creed) and the Thirty-Nine Articles and An Outline of Faith in one year.
