Priscilla King has been planning to marry Chester Lapp since she was sixteen years old, and when Chester pops the question on Priscilla's nineteenth birthday, wedding plans begin immediately.

But what happens when everything that can go wrong does?

Chester works to build a house for his new bride, only to have one disaster after another occur. Priscilla's father planted an excess amount of celery in preparation for a wedding he thought would be in order soon. A failed crop threatens to put a damper on the event. Priscilla's wedding dress is mistakenly cut up to use for dusting rags, and one of her bridesmaids breaks out in a horrible rash before the wedding. And if all that isn't enough, Priscilla develops a case of hiccups that seems to forewarn her every time a mishap is about to occur.

Can true love take this couple through the challenges that threaten their union, or will they begin to doubt that they are on the right path, the one God has chosen for them?
