Inner City Living: Deviant Behavior: Deviant Behavior John Jr. Hodish

Inner-city Living: Deviant Behavior is a book that is meant to offer theoretical approaches to alleviate deviance within the sub-culture of the inner-city. This book will also offer a working model of recovery, the Clairton Community Outreach Program, and how the Clairton Community Outreach Program applies. In essence, this book will provide a brief history of slavery, explain how the inner-city that we know of today was formed, and the formation of the generational mindset that is prevalent within the inner-cities throughout our society.
