A Poetry Of A Book Of My Visions and Dreams Andrea Parmerhorton

Quietly I desire love while soft delicious mist of green; Slowly floats above a warm stream in my Emerald dream. Visions of my future erases my past strengths my self esteem. I've been to other places in my mind traveling from land to land scene to scene. Close your eyes and come go with me. To a land housed with only kings and queens. Where no healing is needed and everyday feels like spring. Everything I can see for I am there in spirit it suddenly seems. Enjoying my every desire captivated by everything; by finding a way to relax my mind changing my very being. I see you there like me it looks like you are enjoying. The visions in my Emerald dream. Can you feel the calmness, peace and love "O" so serene? Can you see the clear blue skies and its surroundingssparkling and clean? Can you see a field of pretty flowers surrounded by the different hues of green? Can you hear the jazz playing softly composed of horns and strings? The scent of lavender; sun shine everyday with rainbow colored beams? How about sipping on an island drinkdining on different types of cuisines? Lying drifting slowly with me in my Emerald dream?
