Girlfriends and Gal Pals: Celebrating the Bonds of Friendship

Love makes the world go 'round and Reeda Joseph's runs her business on "girlfriend power," a combination of strong women, strong coffee, and a lot of laughs. Her two best-selling books, Girlfriends Forever and Girlfriends Are Lifesavers, are testaments to Reeda's eye for one-of-a-kind images of vintage vixens and divine dames throughout the decades. From the fab '50s to the oh-so groovy '60s to the swinging '70s, Joseph's combination of sweet and sassy and hilariously funny stands out as a wonderful tribute to the bonds of friendship. In the author's own words, "Friendship is not one big thing, it is a million little things."

From the book:

"We can't choose our families . . . but thanks goodness we CAN choose our friends!"

"Whoever said money can't buy happiness just hasn't spent enough on herself!"

"We're friends because we like so many of the same things. And even more importantly, can't stand some of the same people."

"They say good things come in small packages but we prefer big packages with giant bows parked in the driveway!"
