What would you do if you received a love letter from God? Would you put it on a shelf in the den? Maybe you could place it on the coffee table in the living room where everyone could notice. Would you leave it unopened because you thought it would be too hard to read?

The Bible is one continuous love letter from the very heart of God. All of the 66 books of the Bible are sewn together with hundreds of Threads, or repeated Truths. Once you are able to see them, even familiar stories become deeper and richer in their meaning. Like a symphony, with the melody line being Jesus, there is an orchestra playing in the background that gives the Bible a fuller sound.

Using the “warp and woof” pattern of the Seamless Robe of Jesus, Sewn Together by God is a primer to help identify the Threads that run from Genesis to Revelation (Warp Threads), the Threads that tie the Old Testament to the New Testament (Woof Threads) and the Threads that tie one Scripture to another Scripture (Short Threads).
