The Rottweiler Training Book Gerald Grafton

I am going to be upfront with you here. This book is not going to cover bringing home a Rottweiler, choosing a Rottweiler puppy or the origin of the breed. It is not going to cover what to feed him/her, grooming or health. I am going to assume that you either already have one of these noble dogs or have thoroughly done your research. I will try and eliminate all of the filler and fluff with this book and not drag it out just so I can make it a little longer.

I will quickly give you my opinion on Rottweiler's though. I think they are great.

This book is going to cover teaching a Rottweiler the basic fundamentals which I believe are very important for not only the "Rottie", but for every dog that takes a breath.

Everyone has their own training style and this is how I happen to do things.
