BLIND...

Dean had it all: a plush investment banking job in New York City, a blue-blooded girlfriend, and the all-important Harvard pedigree. Losing it all was yet another test of life and Dean was always good with tests. He was soon onto bigger and better things: a new exclusive job managing money for a European scion and a new romance with an exotic beauty.

...SIDE

But when his best friend turns up murdered in Dean's apartment and an astronomical sum goes missing from his client's account, the young banker finds himself in unfamiliar territory: a wanted fugitive on the underside of New York City. With the FBI and an ice-cold assassin in pursuit, this is one test for which Dean may neither have the skills...or the time.

"Michael May sizzles in this explosive debut which put him on the map alongside the likes of Grisham, Clancy, and Patterson, creating a page-turner which will keep you guessing until the last page. Do not start this one at night if you expect to get any sleep. Un-put-downable!"
