Lost Below David Finnern

In Lost Below, the author chronicles not only the history of some of the most fascinating sunken historical treasures of the Southwest, but the true adventure of exploration and discovery. The book contains 17 chapters, each about a search for a sunken ship, aircraft, river port or landing. Profusely illustrated with over 200 illustrations, Lost Below provides both the historian and the adventurer with interesting facets of South West history, many of which are little known and nearly forgotten.
