We have all experienced moments of deep spiritual connection and truth, but what happens when that erratic driver swerves his car only inches in front of your car, cutting you off as you speed along the highway? Suddenly you find that the love and spirituality that you had been feeling gets slammed down hard and fast, like the brake pedal that strained beneath the weight of your stressed right foot. Along with your vehicle, your peace of mind also came to an abrupt halt. As this world appears to be speeding up and wrapping itself around fear-based thoughts, you find yourself having to make difficult choices. How do you find moments of grace during these personally trying times?
