Six years ago, Stace and Danny were college sweethearts, playing in the same band together, and dreaming about the future. When Danny's dream came true, to get a chance to play for a professional soccer team across the country, love took a backseat.

Stace moved on, taking the band from small time gigs in college towns into the big time. And when Danny blew out a knee, he fell back into the music scene, too, making a name for himself as well.

Now they are playing a joint concert at The O2 arena, in a massive entertainment complex in London, for New Year's Eve. Stace has been burned by love, and by Danny, before... can she risk giving him a second chance?
