Description

Joanna Fletcher is halfway through her senior year in high school and is preparing for a career as a brain doctor. She has been preparing for her dream job all four years of high school. She studies hard every night, gets extra credit, volunteers at the hospital and dreams of the perfect job after college. But she never expected to grab the attention of the football star of her school, Mark Macanerny. And when he turns his attention to her, she realizes that school and brain studies aren't the only important things in life. There's love and relationships to consider. Will she throw away her plans to stay with Mark in their small Georgia town? Will she decide to leave him and pursue her dreams, going to college in another state? Or will the decision ultimately be taken out of her hands, not be left up to her in the end?
