Oak Mountain (The Oak Mountain Trilogy) Mr. Stephen T. Gerdel

The President of the United States is assassinated in St. Louis. Special Agent Mike Trapper, a Secret Service agent and team leader for presidential security, helped the President up the steps to the platform just before the bullet struck. It is soon discovered the plot is broad and planned over many decades. Mike and a team of specialists in Washington discover a network of “sleepers” who hold many positions in the government, and the chase is on to find where they will strike next. Mike is hounded by the reason and objective of the attack. After three tours in Iraq, he knows the cost of failure and the price of personal injury. His heroism and leadership place him in a position requiring secrecy and determination as the plot expands to envelope the country. Join Special Agent Mike Trapper as he pursues those who would destroy a nation. Discover their targets and see how hard work, keen intuition and the high-tech tools of tomorrow save the day.
