The French Revolution...a ménage thought lost.

Gabrielle Bertrand believed the men she loved had been beheaded during the French Revolution's Reign of Terror. Now promised in marriage to a general of the revolution, she still fears for her life and has resigned herself to the union.

And then fate intervenes and she sees Eric LeClaire and André St. Germaine again. Eric and André have spent the last two years searching for Gabrielle, terrified she'd been killed during one of the revolution's roundups. Now that they've found her again, neither will let her go.

But with National Police after them, and years spent apart, will Gabrielle return to her lovers? Or will all three of them face the wrath of Madame Guillotine?

This is an 18,550 word m/m/f ménage set during the Reign of Terror. I hope you enjoy this tale of love, revenge, and danger.
