"And why not let the 'hot younger brother' woo you? You are the most amazing, drop-dead gorgeous woman I've ever known and you totally deserve to be wooed." With her thirtieth birthday on the horizon, Jasmine Montgomery has just filed papers to divorce her unfaithful husband. She's spared a weekend of wallowing when she answers the call of her best friend, Laurel Benedetti, to come along for a carefree weekend at the Benedetti family lake house. Joining them will be Laurel's younger brother, Tyson, and a couple of his closest friends, who are celebrating their graduation from college. Aside from having known him since he was in primary school, Jasmine and Tyson have a very brief history: six years prior, a drunken moment's poor decision led to them being caught in a compromising position. Although Jasmine was horrified by her action, Tyson had fallen in love. She hasn't seen him since that night, but the incident still lurked in the back of her mind. Surely he'd forgotten it had ever occurred or had he? All Tyson knows is that fate has awarded him this weekend as his chance to capture the heart of the woman of his dreams and convince her that age really is just a number."
