She knew it was wrong, yet she couldn't stop herself. Falling for him was never in her plans...

Gabi has had a crush on Max for years, but she never thought she'd act on it. Not until the night of her college graduation party, when the stars aligned just right. She was shocked she did what she did, especially since he was a completely wrong guy for her. Plus, she was sure Max would never look at her the same way she saw him. Why would a hottie like him give her a second thought?

When Gabi made her move, Max was shocked. But try as he might, he couldn't get her out of his head. That kiss, that body... Now he wanted more, so much more. If only she'd stop avoiding him or pretending like nothing had ever happened.

With their parents going through their own battles, Gabi and Max must decide if they can take their burgeoning bond to the next level. Can they get close, without tearing their family apart?
