Dutch and the Cowboy was published as two separate novellas on Spanking Romance. Each story stands on its own, but they both tell of two men in the same special ops unit... And both friends share the desire to dominate their lovers. Dutch has burned with love for Nita for years... but can he keep her safe from his past while making her scream from his pleasures and his discipline? Or will the combination prove fatal to his loved one? The Cowboy, West, got into spanking to keep his sister walking the straight and narrow while he was away fighting. But now that he's retired, his attention immediately goes to another bottom that needs spanking—his sister's friend, Livvy... But can Livvy appreciate that this strapping man is everything she needs, or are the desires for domination too deep to ever come to the surface?
