As Christmas Eve approaches, I am full of nostalgic memories. I wanted to take this special time to share with you all one personal story that has provided my life with a greater purpose and why Christmas Eve evokes powerful memories of love communicated through family tradition. After you read this story, I encourage you to hold tight to your traditions as they transcend time and will always find a place in the heart of those that truly understand the spirit of unconditional kindness. Wealth is obtaining goods and services having value. Hold your loved one's tightly and take value in the relationship that you have nurtured and honor the love with traditions that will last generation to generation. This book is for those who believe in the magic of Santa Claus as it offers an inspiration story which is followed up with personal tips on how to be the best Santa this Christmas! It also discusses how to talk to the older children and non-believers. A great gift for loved ones during the holiday season!
