For those looking to unleash their inner child or nurture the artist within, this is your coloring book. Think of it as an art therapy- meditation-mindfulness tool where you have permission to color your world any way you like. Daily Color contains 55 hand-drawn chunky black line abstract leaves, florals and pattern illustrations all designed by Robyn Berg, a Brooklyn-based textile artist. Robyn found most coloring books to be too small and too intricate and ended up stressing out. So she created one that's nice to zone out with for 20 minutes. Whether you're a pro, novice, or a 3-year-old, its thick black lines mean you can color over the edges without beating yourself up. In other words, this coloring book is good for you.
