Cartooning Basics Duane Barnhart, Angie Barnhart

First published in 1997, and richly illustrated with over 900 cartoon drawings, Cartooning Basics has become one of the most enduring how-to-draw cartoons books in print. The timeless cartooning lessons are based on sound drawing principles approved by teachers, parents, and budding cartoonists. Print versions of the book have been given favorable reviews by the National Art Educators' Association (NAEA), and professional cartoonists, including the late Charles Schulz, creator of Peanuts and Jim Davis, creator of Garfield. This e-book version keeps the same great lessons and drawings found in the print version, and presents them in an easy-to-use format that is always accessible and good for many hours of drawing fun. 83 pages.
