Providing answers to questions on Shabbat observance as well as an analysis of the process by which the answers are derived, this guide tackles controversial Shabbat issues such as the possibility for a Shabbat bus, women's cosmetics, and the building of an eruv. Though many books address questions of Shabbat observance, Shabbat, the Right Way provides definitive direction as well as insight into the advice it offers. Anyone seeking to understand Jewish law—and even those already familiar with Halacha—will come away with a better sense of the tenets that lie at the heart of Judaism.
