Jeremy loved hockey. He had been the captain of the team in college, where he had met the love of his life, Dan. But Dan's father refused to have a gay son. And he had all of the money to ensure it. Breaking Jeremy's heart, Dan let his father's money come between them.

Years later, when they meet again, Jeremy realizes he still has the same feelings for Dan. But does Dan feel the same way? He had gotten married, to a woman. And even if he did, where did that leave Jeremy and his heart? Did he really trust Dan to not break his heart again, after everything he had done in the past? Would Jeremy ever be able to forgive him?
