Annie is an interior designer and her alpha billionaire husband, Luka, is in Switzerland on a business trip. He has been gone several weeks and she worries that with the full moon coming, he may have a problem with others discovering his family's secret. Centuries ago their line was cursed with a shape shifter spell that made each of the males transform into wolves with the full moon.

After she and her husband share an intimate video phone call, Annie decides to fly to Switzerland to surprise her husband. Once she is there, however, the employees at the front desk of the hotel won't allow her up to his room, so she has to come up with a different plan to surprise him. Deciding to dress like a call girl, Annie waits until Luka is in the room and surprises him at his door.

Once he realizes she isn't actually a hooker, Luka lets her in and she shows him another surprise: her suitcase full of accessories for them to have fun in the bedroom with. However, after their time together, she tells him they need to figure out what he is going to do with the full moon just around the corner.

Will they be discovered or will Luka and Annie come up with a plan that hides them from others when the full moon rises?
