The Heart Sings: A Perfect Love Scott Miller

Scott Miller knows there's something special about Maria Chavez the first time he sees her. A first kiss goes sour, but he gets a second chance when he takes her to the senior prom. Love isn't in the cards—at least not yet—as they leave early in his 1972 Cutlass Supreme.

Thirty-six years pass, thirty-two of them with Miller married to another woman. This isn't love. At least, it's not what he desires. Life itself seems empty— until he receives an e-mail from an old flame.

When you find true love, you fight for it. That's what Scott knows. That's what Scott wants. He fights for it with all he's got, showering her with love and waiting for her to answer his proposal with the two words he wants to hear. He finally gets his answer, but is it too late?

Miller gives readers an inspirational memoir about the importance and power of love in The Heart Sings.
