Stacy Williams and her husband Jason have always been Christian loving people. They believe that everything happens for a reason and that God does work in mysterious ways. They've known each other all their lives. As teenagers, they were destined to meet and fall in love and have a family. They did marry and they do own their own business together, but the one thing missing is the pitter patter of little feet. When Jason develops heart issues, Stacy stands beside him through the trials and tribulations that he has to go through. Will there be a happily ever after or is their spark meant to die?
