My Garden - My Friend is a collection of poems and short stories, even a rap song, written by lively and alert young gardeners about their gardening experiences, each one matched with a charming, complementary illustration. Share their enchanting tales, scary adventures, passionate pleas and heart-warming feelings about what they discover living and growing in their gardens. And how they all agree . . . that their garden really is their friend! This is a book for children and young adults, parents and grand-parents, to marvel at and enjoy the wonders that these young gardeners unearth!
