“I got out there about a half hour earlier to get a good spot to shoot some pictures, and I found a spot, one of these concrete blocks they have there in that park near the underpass”

Abraham Zapruder

WFAA-TV Dallas

November 22, 1963

That Park Near The Underpass is designed as a 'primer' to orient those curious and wishing to know more about the greatest American mystery of the twentieth century. It delves into the many controversies that after almost 50 years, still surround the Assassination of President John Kennedy and brings together past and recent revelations from a diverse and distinguished group of expert assassination researchers.
