If you were given a chance to live in another time, would you? When Maggie O'Brien attends her mother's funeral, she learns that she is not an O'Brien, but a McFarland. This set her on a journey to find her true identity. She looks to her sisters for help but they fail to yield. With the help of a spirit guide and an Indian named Walking Eagle, Maggie finds herself gliding through time to 1889. Returning to the present to sell her house, she sees someone not only from the 1800's, but who is allegedly dead. Her mind works overtime leading her to believe that there is a conspiracy taking place. Could she be right? Take this exciting journey with Maggie and learn how subtly someone can take over your life without your knowledge until it's too late.
