Creative Correspondence Judy Jacobs

Creative Correspondence proves that anyone can make and send imaginatively decorated mail, even when they're pressed for time and money. Readers will find more than 15 step-by-step projects inside, including letters and envelopes with photo inserts, stapled booklets, envelope pockets and acetate address windows, plus clever self-mailers. There are also tips on recycling cards and paper into colourful postcards and stylish stationery. Readers will learn basic paper folding, measuring and cutting techniques for great-looking results from the start. Techniques show how each letter or self-mailer can be embellished with coloured pencils, rubber stamps, customised address labels and colourful flaps and stickers. Readers will also learn how to decorate plain paper with stamping, combing, bubble marbling and other fun techniques.
