The Green Lama #3: The Man Who Wasn't There & Death's Head Face Richard Foster

Here are two more thrilling exploits of Jethro Dumont, also known as The Green Lama - the first white man to become an ordained Tibetan priest.

Motivated by worldly suffering, the Lama takes up the challenge of organized crime and subversive elements wherever he finds them. Returning to New York after his recent adventures in Hollywood, Jethro finds intrigue and murder aboard the S.S. Cathay, where he crosses swords with unscrupulous smuggler James Nored in The Man Who Wasn't There. For the first time, a foe escapes The Green Lama's justice. The skull-faced Nord returns in Death's Head Face - this time as the head executioner of a vicious murder ring for a final fatal showdown.
