On July 31, 1923 a sapling was planted by four Missionary Benedictine Sisters of Tutzing, Germany. They had been invited to Nebraska by Archbishop Jeremiah Harty of Omaha to minister to German immigrants. That fall the Sisters began teaching in St. John Berchman's School, Raeville, Nebraska. Community prayer is integral to the life of a Missionary Benedictine Sister. Thus the daily schedule is arranged to punctuate the day with prayer, both in common and in private. The sisters worship God, pray for the needs of the world, and endeavor to lead a life of unceasing prayer. The Sisters come together for common praying of the Divine office, also known as the Liturgy of the Hours at four different times daily. Morning prayer (Lauds), Day Office, Evening Prayer (Vespers), and Night Prayer (Compline).
